Canal Fulton Memory Project: The Canal Fulton Public Library is excited to announce that the Canal Fulton Memory Project Website is now available to the public! With 2020 marking the 50th anniversary of the christening of the St. Paul, this is a fantastic time to honor Canal Fulton’s unique history. This website is designed to allow members of the community to view and even contribute historical information about Canal Fulton and its surrounding areas.

Please type the following address below into your browser to visit the project’s website: wiki.canalfultonlibrary.org

Staff Highlight: Joy Polacek

Hello! You might recognize me as Miss Joy of Tots and Tales Story-times. I recently retired from working full-time as a pre-K teacher and had plans of retirement. The library children's position open and I couldn't resist. I have been married for over 25 years to a Firefighter/Medic, who recently became a Lieutenant. I have two amazing children, also a full-time firefighter/Paramedic. A daughter who is a senior in high school and will graduate through the fire EMT program. She hopes to further her education as an ultrasound tech. We have three Labrador retrievers who keep us very busy. I enjoy antique shopping, hiking and scrapbooking.

Cultural Corner

CFPL Board meetings are held virtually, on Webex, usually on the second Wednesday of each month at 7:00 P.M. Since there are occasional changes, it is best to confirm the time and date by calling the library at 330-854-4148. All meetings are open to the public. The next meeting is November 11th at 7:00 p.m. The Webex link is on the CFPL website.

Recycle at the library! The bin faces Walnut St.

Northwest Local School’s Thanksgiving Break November 25-27 & 30.

The Canal Fulton Public Library will be closed on, November 3 for election day and November 26th for Thanksgiving, but we are always open online at www.canalfultonlibrary.org, so you can download e-books, do research materials. No library materials checked out from the Canal Fulton Public Library on any day that the library is closed.

Mission Statement

The Canal Fulton Public Library serves the educational, cultural, and social needs of our communities by providing access to materials, information, technology, and services. The CFPL Current is published monthly except June/July for the Summer Reading Newsletter, by the Canal Fulton Public Library. A free copy of the CFPL Current may be picked up at the Canal Fulton Public Library and select community outlets. An electronic version of the CFPL Current may be found at the library’s website :
