The Canal Fulton Promoter Canal Fulton Library Dedicate

—No. 50 CANAL FULTON, OHIO, THURSDAY, JULY 14, 1949

Library Dedication Ceremonies held for Sunday July 17
dedication of the new Canal Fulton Public Library

For the past 85 years your Canal Fulton Public Library has been proud to serve the educational, social and entrainment needs of this community. First opened in 1939 and housed within a room at the old Canal Fulton High School, it took only a few years to out grow that space whereupon it was moved to a larger room. Demand for library resources and services continued to outgrow this new room as well and before long it was realized that nothing short of its own separate building would do. With extraordinarily generous donations made by Mary and George Muhlhauser, the old home of Timothy Sullivan was purchased and transformed into the new Canal Fulton Public Library. Having officially opened our doors on July 17, 1949, librarians and staff have seen generations of patrons (both old and young) come here to find laughter, learning, life skills and lots more. This building, enjoying our 75th anniversary this month, has itself seen four expansions and with your continued support we can look forward to providing for the needs of many more generations to come!

Thank you!!

CANAL FULTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

In recognition of a most outstanding contribution to the schools and community of Canal Fulton becomes the privilege of the class of 1949 to thank Mr. and Mrs. George Mulhauser for the beautiful library which they have given.

Only through the years, as countless men and women and boys and girls pass through this precious doorway to find a wealth of information and pleasure which will be theirs for the asking, and as their horizons are broadened as they read, shall we begin to realize what a privilege it is to have such a library.

Friends of the Library

Summer is for Fun and Friends!

The summer months are rolling right along and so are the Friends of the Library! We were excited to be a part of the Olde Canal Days Festival and appreciate everyone who cheered us on in the parade and stopped by our booth. We were happy to distribute free books to our community and help to promote the awesome Imagination Library, which provides children in our area with a FREE book by mail each month starting from birth to the age of five. For more information, please stop by the library and ask about signing up. It's free and easy!

We were also thrilled to collaborate with Girl Scout Troop 60048 to build a Free Little Library at the Lawrence Township Park. The ribbon cutting took place during their Community Day Celebration on June 8th and was dedicated to our former Library Director, David Brown. A huge thank you to the Girl Scouts for helping to make this dream a reality. Please stop by the park this summer to check it out and find a fantastic book!

Last but not least, please consider attending our next monthly meeting on Monday, July 15th at 5:45pm in the library's program room. These meetings are open to the public and a great way to meet new folks in this wonderful community!

Board Meeting

CFPL Board meetings are held on the second Wednesday of each month at 7:00 PM. Since there are occasional changes, it is best to confirm the time and day by calling the library at 330-854-4148. All meetings are open to the public. The Canal Fulton Public Library Board of Trustees will meet on Wednesday, July 10th at 7:00 PM in the Program Room.
